§ 2634.305

public filers, if the Director of the Office of Government Ethics receives a written request for and issues a waiver, after determining that:

(i) Both the basis of the relationship between the grantor and the grantee and the motivation behind the gift are entirely personal; and

(ii) No countervailing public purpose requires public disclosure of the nature, source, and value of the gift.

(2) Public disclosure of waiver request. If approved, the cover letter requesting the waiver shall be subject to the public disclosure requirements in § 2634.603 of this part.

- (3) Procedure. A public filer seeking a waiver under this paragraph shall submit a request to the Office of Government Ethics, through his agency. The request shall be made by a cover letter which identifies the filer and his position and which states that a waiver is requested under this section. On an enclosure to the cover letter, the filer shall set forth:
- (i) The identity and occupation of the donor;
- (ii) A statement that the relationship between the donor and the filer is entirely personal in nature; and
- (iii) A statement that neither the donor nor any person or organization who employs the donor or whom the donor represents, conducts or seeks business with, engages in activities regulated by, or is directly affected by action taken by, the agency employing the filer. If the proceding statement cannot be made without qualification, the filer shall indicate those qualifications, along with a statement demonstrating that he plays no role in any official action which might directly affect the donor or any organization for which the donor works or serves as a representative.

§2634.305 Liabilities.

(a) In general. Each financial disclosure report filed pursuant to this part, whether public or confidential, shall identify and include a brief description of the filer's liabilities over $10,000 owed to any creditor at any time during the reporting period, and the name of the creditors to whom such liabilities are owed. For public financial disclosure reports, the report shall designate the category of value of the liabilities in accordance with §2634.301(d) of this subpart, using the greatest amount owed to the creditor during the period.

(b) Exceptions. The following are not required to be reported under paragraph (a) of this section:

(1) Personal liabilities owed to a spouse or to the parent, brother, sister, or child of the filer, spouse, or dependent child:

(2) Any mortgage secured by a personal residence of the filer or his spouse:

(3) Any loan secured by a personal motor vehicle, household furniture, or appliances, provided that the loan does not exceed the purchase price of the item which secures it; and

(4) Any revolving charge account with an outstanding liability which does not exceed $10,000 at the close of the reporting period.

Example An incumbent official has the following debts outstanding at the end of the calendar year:

- 1. Mortgage on personal residence—$80,000.
- 2. Mortgage on rental property—$50,000.
- 3. VISA Card—$1,000.
- 4. Master Card-$11,000.
- 5. Loan balance of $15,000, secured by family automobile purchased for $16,200.
- 6. Loan balance of $10,500, secured by antique furniture purchased for $8,000.

7. Loan from parents—$20,000.

The loans indicated in items 2, 4, and 6 must be disclosed. Loan 1 is exempt from disclosure under paragraph (b)(2) of this section because it is secured by the personal residence. Loan 3 need not be disclosed under paragraph (b)(4) of this section because it is considered to be a revolving charge account with an outstanding liability that does not exceed $10,000 at the end of the reporting period. Loan 5 need not be disclosed under paragraph (b)(3) of this section because it is secured by a personal motor vehicle which was purchased for more than the value of the loan. Loan 7 need not be disclosed because the creditors are persons specified in paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

§ 2634.306 Agreements and arrangements.

Each financial disclosure report filed pursuant to this part, whether public or confidential, shall identify the parties to and the date of, and shall briefly describe the terms of, any agreement
